

THE BREAKING GROUND

Financial Assistance Request Form

As a counseling center client or a counseling center church partner, you may choose to use this form to guide a conversation about counseling center scholarships.

As a counseling center client/ potential client, I have taken the following steps:

- Asked for financial help from my family and support system (explain below)
- Reworked my budget, eliminated entertainment, eating out and other non-essential expenses, and determined I can pay $ _____ of the counseling fee as an investment in my healing and growth
- Determined that if I had $_____ per session for the next 10 sessions in the form of a scholarship to assist with my session fees, I would be able to commit to life-change for my personal and relational well-being.
- Understand that after 10 sessions, the scholarship amount will be re-evaluated.

Please check those that apply and fill-in-the blanks:

- I don't have a church home.
- The church I attend is called _____.
- The church location I attend most regularly is _____.
- I am a participant of the _____ recovery program.
- I am currently a (check all that apply) _____ full-time student _____ part-time student who is financially _____ self-supported _____ supported by parents _____ other (explain)

Please provide a brief explanation of your circumstances and why you are requesting financial assistance for Christian counseling, including combined family income information and any changes that may have taken place recently (use back if needed):
